Did you know that SDVOSBs and federal agencies share in a mutually beneficial relationship? By virtue of their Veteran owned status, SDVOSBs receive privileged contracting opportunities with the federal government. In turn, working with a Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business will benefit a federal government agency in the following ways:

Meet 3% Federal Set Aside Goals

Reduce Decision Cycle

Improve Supply Chain Processes & Performance

Support Veterans & Small Businesses

To learn more about our services email us at info@reade.com, call us at 401-433-7000, or visit us at reade.com for more information.
The Benefits of Partnering with a Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business

READE is a Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business (SDVOSB) and meets all Federal requirements for this designation. READE would be happy to provide confirmation documents as appropriate and upon request.

READE maintains current company information in the following directories:

System for Award Management (SAM)
Online Representations & Certifications Application (ORCA)

To learn more about our services email us at info@reade.com, call us at 401-433-7000, or visit us at reade.com for more information.